Berkeley Community Mental Health Center Therapy Expectations Contract Adult Services Program

Patient:	CID#

At Berkeley Community Mental Health Center, we strive to provide the best treatment for all of our patients. We use the Adult Services Treatment Model and Level of Care System so that we can meet the unique needs of you, our patient, and design a treatment plan that helps you achieve your goals. As stated in the Adult Services Treatment Model brochure, we use both individual and group therapy modalities to help our patients achieve these goals.

I have received a copy of the Adult Services Treatment Model brochure and I have had the opportunity to ask questions about Berkeley Community Mental Health Center services and 3 phases of treatment (Individual Therapy, Group Therapy, and Reassess for Level of Care). I agree to participate in my Plan of Care and follow the recommendations of my treatment team, in order to meet my goals.

We know that our patients get the most out of therapy when they attend sessions consistently. We are also concerned about having appointment times available for patients who need and want to be seen. Therefore, we ask that you agree to the following statements:

Please initial next to each item:

If I need to cancel an appointment, I will call my counselor at least 24 hours before my scheduled appointment.

If I am ill, I will call my counselor as soon as possible to cancel my appointment. Twenty-four (24) hours of notice is requested to cancel an appointment whenever possible. (Note: Please do not come to the center if you are ill. We hope you will take care of yourself and prevent spreading contagious illness to our staff and other patients.)

If I have difficulty remembering my appointments, I will speak with my counselor about a plan to ensure I attend all scheduled appointments.

Because my treatment goals cannot be accomplished unless treatment sessions are consistent, I understand that my case may be discharged if I do not adhere to these expectations. My signature below indicates that I understand and agree to follow this therapy expectations contract.

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION CONSENT FORM

As a patient or caregiver of a patient at South Carolina Department of Mental Health (SCDMH), you may wish to communicate with SCDMH staff by email. Your health is important to us and we will make every effort to reasonably comply with your request. We may deny requests for email communications if or when your clinician determines that it would not be in your best interest.

Our office will use reasonable means to protect the privacy of email information sent and received. However, we cannot guarantee the security of email communication. Patients must consent to the use of email for patient information, billing, and communication.

Below are policies outlining when and how email should be utilized to maintain your privacy and to enhance communication, as well as a place for you to acknowledge your consent to its use. Your decision to use email is voluntary and your consent may be withdrawn at any time.

When may I use email to communicate with SCDMH staff?

Email may be used for routine requests. Some examples are:

- Appointment scheduling
- Appointment reminders
- Routine questions
- Referral information
- Requests for medical excuses
- Telehealth links
- Other matters not requiring an immediate response

When should I NOT use email to communicate with SCDMH staff?

Email should never be used:

- In an emergency—use the 24 hour crisis line for emergencies (833-364-2274)
- If you are experiencing any desire to harm yourself or others
- If you are experiencing a severe medication reaction
- To communicate highly sensitive topics
- If you need an immediate response

What are the risks of using email?

Risks of communicating via email include but are not limited to:

- Email may be accidentally sent to an unintended recipient.
- Email may be intercepted by hackers and redistributed.
- Employers/online services may have a legal right to inspect and keep emails that pass through their system.
- Email is easier to falsify than signed hard copies. In addition, it is impossible to verify the true identity of the sender, or to ensure that only the recipient can read the email.
- Emails can introduce viruses, malware, or other malicious programs that may damage the computer.
- Email can be used as evidence in court.
- Emails can be intercepted, forwarded, circulated, stored or even changed without the knowledge or permission of either the sender or recipient.
- Copies of an email may continue to exist, even after the email is deleted.

What happens to my messages?

- Emails will be maintained as a permanent part of your medical record.
- As part of your permanent record, they may be released along with the rest of the record upon your authorization or when it is otherwise legally required to do so.
- Messages may be seen by staff for the purpose of filing or carrying out requests (e.g., appointment scheduling).

What are my obligations?

- I must let SCDMH staff know immediately if my email address changes.
- If I do not receive a response within 24 hours, or the timeframe discussed by my clinician, I will contact him/her by telephone if a response is needed.
- I will use email communication only for the purposes stated above.
- I will advise my clinician in writing, should I decide that I would prefer not to continue communicating via email

What steps has SCDMH taken to protect the privacy of my email communications?

- SCDMH email encrypts email messages.
- Every SCDMH computer has a password protected screen-saver.
- SCDMH staff are educated on the appropriate use and protection of email.
- SCDMH staff will not forward patient email to third-parties without your express consent.

What steps can I take to protect my own privacy?

- Do not use your work computer to communicate with SCDMH, as your employer has a right to inspect emails sent through the company's system.
- Do not use a shared email account to transmit messages.
- Log out of your email account if you will be away from your computer.
- Carefully check the address before hitting "send" to ensure that you are sending your message to the intended receiver.
- Avoid writing or reading emails on a mobile device in a public place.
- Avoid accessing email on a public Wi-Fi hotspot.

Encryption Waiver

SCDMH staff will encrypt all emails sent outside of the SCDMH agency network to protect your privacy. If you are unable to accept encrypted communication for any reason, but still would like to accept emails from SCDMH, you may waive your right to encryption, with the understanding that your information will be less secure.

Please initial here if you prefer NOT to use encryption _____.

CONSENT TO EMAIL USE

By signing below, I consent to the use of email communication between myself and SCDMH. I recognize that there are risks to its use, and despite SCDMH's best efforts, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. I understand and accept those risks and the policies for email use outlined in the form. I agree to follow these policies and agree that should I fail do so, SCDMH may cease to allow me to use email to communicate with SCDMH. I also understand that I may withdraw my consent to communicate via email at any time by notifying SCDMH staff in writing.
